

LINCOLN ELEMENTARY
JANUARY 2023
NEWSLETTER
 Mr. Bryan, Principal

We are basically halfway through the school year, and I have a few “thank-yous” to issue. First, to our students and staff for all the hard work they have put forth daily here at school. We have so many great people in this building and what they all do daily is something everyone in this community can be proud of. To all the parents, your support and willingness to work together with our teachers is greatly appreciated, along with our PTO and everything they do for our students and staff is so impressive. Lastly, to the local businesses and other community organizations that support our school is something we do not take for granted. For a school to be successful, it truly is a team effort that involves so many people.

As we begin 2023, two things we really need to focus on at Lincoln Elementary that will take everyone’s help with:

1. We have made some great strides as it pertains to our reading fluency data. We still have a way to go, and it remains our top priority at school. Any help we can get from home will be greatly appreciated. If possible, please find 10-15 minutes a day where you have your children read or have an adult read to them.
2. Student attendance and students arriving to school on time continues to be of the utmost importance. Every minute, every hour, every day is so critical when it comes to learning and student achievement.

Reminders:

- Breakfast & Lunch will be free for all Lincoln Elementary Students
- Main Office hours 7:30-3:30
- Please call the office before 1:30 with any after-school transportation changes.
- School begins at 8am. Anyone who arrives after that will be considered tardy unless they have an excuse from medical personnel.

Establish a Culture for Literacy

Any parent wanting to impact their child’s education I have one simple suggestion: Reading at home Whether it is an adult reading to a child, a child reading to an adult, or a child reading independently. The more opportunities we can provide where books are in our students’ hands, the better!

Jan. 27th Early Dismissal Day - School Improvement

Car Riders Dismissed - 12:25

Bus Riders Dismissed - 12:30

Walkers Dismissed - 12:40

For students who normally ride the Crossing bus after school or attend the after-school YMCA program, those will not occur on Early Dismissals. Please make sure there is a plan in place for these students and that our school staff know in advance. Your assistance with this is greatly appreciated
